A Letter From the Pastor - Holy Week

BY PASTOR TOMMY

Dear Wesley Church family,
Hundreds of millions of Christians, by some counts, a billion or more, will remember this Holy Week and Easter time. It is a humbling thing to keep in our mind's eyes the brothers and sisters worshipping all across the world this week. Our partner church in Honduras, Utila Methodist, and our Global Methodist partners in Tanzania, Panama, and many others are all worshipping and glorifying our crucified and risen Savior!

When I was in Scouts growing up we went to camp every summer. At that camp, there was always a morning chapel service of worship. Not every Scout troop went, but our leaders got us up early and we went.

BY PASTOR TOMMY

The chaplain of the camp was a man named Tom Goodwin, Brother Tom, we called him.

One of the songs he had us sing in chapel worship on those mornings was “Rise and shine and give God the glory...children of the Lord.” He played his guitar and rallied us as best he could to sing despite how we had straggled in, half-awake to worship those mornings. Like a lot of things, I look back at that experience with more appreciation than I held at the time. But even then I knew it was special to wake up and worship as the first thing we did and it was important to give God the glory for the morning and day that was to come.

On that first Easter morning, the women who had followed Jesus woke in the morning and went to the tomb they found empty. I’m sure they went to bed the night before unsure of what the future would hold but when they arose in the morning they would soon shine and give God the glory. Whichever Gospel account you read the glory of the resurrection shines forth! The life changing, history altering resurrection of Jesus Christ gave the women, the disciples and all of us, everywhere in the world for all of time, hope for the future.

I look forward to rising, shining, and giving God the glory, with each of you this week in worship.
