A Letter From the Pastor - Relationships

BY PASTOR RICK

Proverbs 13:20 – "Walk with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm."

Historians looking through John Wesley's journals found a curious item: a small book filled with marks, tallies, dates, and times. It turned out to be Wesley's spiritual journal — a running record of his "spiritual pulse." He used it to track his closeness to God, his spiritual successes and struggles, and to notice how God was at work in his life. Over the next few weeks, I want to share some of the same ways you can check your own spiritual pulse.

The first place to look is your relationships. How are things with your family, friends, teammates, and mentors?

feel disconnected from meaningful relationships — or feel like they are, even when they aren't. Jesus gave us rich teaching on how to love and relate well to others (Matthew 5–7), but reading it isn't enough. We need to practice it alongside other Christians. So this week's spiritual pulse check is simple: how are your relationships?

Is there a conversation you've been putting off that could deepen a relationship with someone you love? Is there forgiveness or reconciliation that needs to be offered? Are you part of a weekly Bible study, small group, or other fellowship?

If you need help finding your way into a group, let us help connect you. We'll be launching some new groups in September, so keep an eye out for one that might be a good fit for you.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Rick Ivey

The Wesley Adult Choir Members led in the singing of The Star Spangled Banner the Americans With Disabilities Act Celebration at the ARC of Beaumont. This celebration was held on Saturday, July 25, 2026. They were also spotlighted on a local news channel covering the event. Thank you for representing Wesley!
