A Letter From the Pastor - Psalm 51

BY PASTOR RICK

"Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin."
(Psalm 51:1-2)

Psalm 51 captures the longing and hope of the Lenten season. No wonder it sits at the heart of Ash Wednesday services and Lenten devotionals. The psalm challenges the modern tendency to dismiss our sins as "no big deal" or to treat our distance from God as unimportant. Written after King David's grave moral failure and his confrontation by the prophet Nathan (2 Samuel 12), the psalm's raw recognition of sin, honest confession, and deep contrition offer a powerful guide as we journey through the season of Lent.

BY PASTOR RICK

Lent is a fitting time to pause and examine the state of our souls. Take time to identify and root out whatever is keeping you from a close relationship with God. Bring before him anything you have been habitually choosing over him, and ask for his mercy to renew your spirit and make it clean.

Hold onto these promises:

- God is "merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." (Exodus 34:6-7)
- "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." (Lamentations 3:22-23)
- "The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love." (Psalm 103:8)
- You are not too far. Turn back to God.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Rick Ivey
