A Letter From the Pastor

BY PASTOR TOMMY

Dear Wesley family,
Please make sure you join me in completing and returning your stewardship commitment card this month.

At Wesley Methodist Church, we are All In on God's mission in the world.

Worship at Wesley is Christ-centered, filled with powerful music, convicted preaching, and a strong spirit of prayer. Small groups are growing in our church and thriving, and as we strengthen existing ones, we are starting new groups all the time. Hands-on mission is in action in our community – when God calls, Wesley answers through caring for seniors, caring for people in economic poverty, supporting veterans, homeless persons, children and much more.

Stewardship

BY PASTOR TOMMY

This year we launched two Hope and Healing groups - one for caregivers support and the other for those in grief. Together as a church we have celebrated spiritual milestones along the way this year – births and baptisms, weddings, and, of course, when we say goodbye to loved ones and commit them to the Lord.

All this and more is not just a laundry list of activity but a testimony to what the Lord has done and is doing. As we look to the New Year, we are looking forward to what the Lord will do. To look forward with hope we make a commitment to be All In on God's mission with our whole lives, including our finances.

Join my family in a filling out the Commitment card online or in person and join with us in the mission of God in 2026!

Pastor Tommy
